Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.
In Slovenia school debate contests were organized in 8 different Slovenian cities including 10 different secondary schools (3 different secondary schools from the capital – Ljubljana). At each participating school, Sloga was providing methodological support to dedicated teachers - mentors, who expressed the interest to organize school debates (support was provided by different methodological and thematical experts from different civil society organizations in case selected teachers needed it. At each participating secondary school students were asked to prepare for a debate about pro and cons of a topic they have selected in cooperation with Sloga. School debate competitions were first agreed and planned to be going on between March till May, but due to very compact April (many national work-free holidays), majority of participating schools decided to do final school debate competitions only in May and some still in early days of June 2023. At some participating schools (at Gymnasium Kranj and at Gymnasium JP Ljubljana), teacher mentors organized school competitions on multiple days due to allow competition of different teams on different topics. At least at one participating school debate competition (1st Gymnasium in Celje) was organized as a promotional event for the whole school to which all the school pupils were invited to watch, get motivated and support their competing teams – in addition to 45 actively participating school pupils (counted as participants), the final school debate was followed by additional app 150 youngsters and school stuff (not counted as participants). During the debate school contests 367 youngsters actively participated (out of which 239 females and 128 males) and being supported / mentored by 12 teachers (9 females and 3 males). Altogether 379 people were actively engaged in school debate contests and in addition at least 150 as observers, supporters and potential future active debaters. Topics of debate contests were formulated around EU climate challenges, about different aspects of EU values and rights and how to stimulate youngsters to become active citizens and actors of positive change. Debates contest in Slovenia – participating schools: Ljubljana:  1.
